Re: Johnson v. Musk, et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-05037-AKH

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

We represent Defendants Elon Musk and Tesla, Inc. in the above-referenced matter, and write pursuant to Your Honor's Individual Rules, Section 4.B, to respectfully request that the Court seal the pleadings previously submitted to the Court at Dkt. Nos. 117 and 118-1 and to request leave to file proposed redacted public versions of these documents, submitted herewith as Exhibits 1 and 2. Pursuant to Your Honor's Individual Rules, unredacted copies of Exhibits 1 and 2 will be submitted to Chambers.

As grounds therefore, on September 27, 2024, Defendants publicly filed Dkt. No. 117 and Dkt. No. 118-1 in support of Defendants' Motion to Amend, Make Additional Findings, and Amend Final Judgment Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 52(b) and 59(e) and 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(c). On Thursday, October 10, 2024, in their opposition submissions (Dkt. Nos. 120, 121-24) and a separate cross motion (Dkt. Nos. 125-27), Plaintiffs asserted for the first time that certain information described in Defendants' pleadings is private and confidential. Although Plaintiffs did not previously designate this information as private and confidential or assert any applicable privilege under the Federal Rules of Evidence, Defendants do not object to Plaintiffs' designation of these materials as private and confidential. Defendants therefore request that these materials be temporarily filed under seal to allow Plaintiffs' counsel the opportunity to show that "sealing is essential to preserve higher values and is narrowly tailored to serve that interest."
